of the enormous accumulation of snow which will be suddenly melted.

The Republican voters of Franklin Falls, N. H., have met in caucus and nominated for postmeaster F. H. Daniel, the present Democratic incumbent. There was a Republican candidate, but Mr. Daniel received three-fourths of the votes and was accordingly appointed by the President Harrison's house on North Delaware street Indianapolis, Wedneeday evening. Although occupied by Henry S. Fraser and family, much of the President's property is still in the house. Much of it, with jewelry belonging to Mrs. Fraser, was stolen, the loss all told amounting to nearly $1000.

The bottom of a portion of the town of Plains, about four miles from Wilkesbarre, Fa., dropped out Friday. With it went three single houses and a double block, causing consternation among the tenants and great excitement in the town. The Catholic church and parsonage were wrecked a few weeks ago by a cave in, and are within a short distance of the scene. The cave in was caused by extravagant robbing of piliars in the mines.

A fall of rock took place in the Nottingham shaft of the Lebigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company, in No. 6 plane, Pa., Saturday morning, and drove the accumulated gas into the gangways, where 15 men had been at work with naked lamps. William Woodhouse, aged 60, a farmer in London, Ohio, was called to his door the other night by Kinney Graham, who was intoxicated. When Woodhouse appeared, Graham pulled a revolver and fired four shots at him. Two took effect. Mrs. Woodhouse, an old lady, rushed to the scene, and Graham fired at her, the ball taking effect in the right thigh. Both are dangerously wounded. It was the result of an old grudge. Graham has been arrested.

A Philadelphia special says that a re-markable deal has been consummated which practically changes the ownership of the Philadelphia and Reading Raliroad property. The purchasers are independent of the factions which have been so long wrangling over

A terrible fire occurred on North street, Boston, early Sunday morning, resulting in the death of at least six persons. The fire originated in a mysterious manner in a clothing store kept by a Jew, and spread to an Italian boarding house. Feeple jumped from the windows and were killed; others remained in the building and were burned to death. The same morning, the elegant Sears building, a five story marble structure at the corner of Court and Washington streets, owned by J. Montgomery Sears, was destroyed by fire, the fire starting in the engine room. Loss $200,000; insured.

When doctors disagree, who shall decide? The following is from the New York World: 53 Massachusetts farmers are filled with alarm over the reported ravages of a newly found insect peat, which an Amherat College "bug sharp" says may become widespread through the country, and may cause more havoc than the celebrated Colorado potato beetle. This is the gypay moth, known to entomologists as the Ceneria disport. At present it is confined to the neighborhood of Medford, where it caused so much damage that Gov. Brackett, in his message the other day, saw fit to call the attention of agriculturists to the pest, and recommended its speedy extermination.

The moth was introduced here twenty years ago by Dr. L. Trouvelot, who saw the eggs at the Paris Exposition, and put a few in his vest pocket. One day the little bunch of eggs was blown out of his window in Medford, and never heard from until last fail, when millions of the gypay moths attacked shade and fruit trees and shrubbery, leaving nothing save stalks and twigs behind. The area thus devastated was an ellipse a mile and a half long and shalf a mile wide.

Prof. Fernaid, of the Amherst Agricultural College, says the moth is a terrible such of the Harvard authority on bugs and millers, Prof. Hagen, on the other hand, says his Amherst contemporary deen't know what he is talking about. The Harvard extra college, says the moth is a terrible so to shoot caterpiliars, as it were, is entirely unnecessary. Let every man kill his own caterpiliars." The professor has some of them always on tap in his study.

Prof. Litner of New York, does not believe the insect is so destructive as represented. But while the wise men are differing over the matter, we should say that if the professor has some of them always on tap in his study.

Institute.

The farmers' institute for Knox county has been arranged to be held at Union Common, Tuesday, the 18th of February, with the prospect of a wide interest and full attendance. The forenoon is to be given to a lecture on the horse, with illustrations from life, to be given by Dr. G. M. Twitchell. A paper by the member of the Board for the county, F. L. Mansfield, and a discussion of the subject of co-operative dairying, to be opened by L. H. Blossom of the Turner Center creamery, and followed by others, will fill up the afternoon. In the evening, Hon. Rufus Prince, President of the State Agricultural Society, will give a paper on "Orcharding as a Business." If further time allows, Dr. Twitchell will discourse on "Poultry on the farm." The programme is a good one, with speakers who are authorities on the subjects on which they are to speak.

Is the Grange an Active Force?

The State Grange placed itself and the order on record at its annual eneeting as champloning tax-reform and the introduction of elementary instruction in agriculture in the public schools. Now, then, does the Grange by this action mean business? It is one thing to assemble together and pass reactutions, and a comparatively easy thing to do. But such action is without effect if the effort stops there. Resolutions, however good, and reports filled with suggestions, fall flat and powerless unless backed up by effort. The Grange has taken aggressive ground, and now shall we see a nesious effort put forth to bring about the work towards which these preliminary steps have been taken? The Grange is well organised. It has in its ranks able and efficient men and women, and if ever it will be, it is now able to make its influence felit. Will it do something? We shall see.
